

The Friends of the Mendham Borough Library

Membership Application

We are a non-profit group of individuals that support the library through membership, volunteerism, and donations.

What do the Friends do?

- Promote community awareness about the wide variety of services the library has to offer.
- Enhance the library's facilities, resources, and services.
- Raise funds for library services, programs, and equipment not included in the the library budget.

Whatever your talent or skill, the library is happy to have your support!
